County of Culpeper*, Case No. 3:17-cv-19 (W.D. Va.) (“Civil Action”).

In consideration of the monies to be paid, the mutual promises made hereunder, and other good and valuable consideration, the undersigned Parties agree as follows:

II. Material Terms of Settlement

A. Within 14 business days of the date of this Agreement, the County shall approve ICC's original Application. The ICC will not need to resubmit any additional information.

B. The County agrees, in conformity with local, state, and federal law, to not delay or hinder the expeditious approval of any further applications related to the construction or beneficial use of a mosque by ICC on the Property that conform with local, state, and federal law.

C. The County and ICC publicly state as follows:

"The County and the ICC are glad to resolve this matter expeditiously and without further litigation. The Board of Supervisors welcomes the ICC to Culpeper County as it does all other religious organizations. This matter is resolved in the spirit of compromise and good will without being tried. The County makes no admission of wrongdoing and believes that, if the case had been tried, the County would have been absolved of any wrongdoing. The ICC believes that, if the case had been tried, the ICC would have prevailed. The County will issue a pump and haul permit to the ICC until such time as water and sewer becomes available to the property."

The County satisfies its obligation under this subsection by attaching this Agreement to a Board resolution ratifying this Agreement which will be recorded in the Board minutes.

D. The County agrees to compensate the ICC for the ICC's direct, out-of-pocket expenses arising from the Denial. The ICC and the County agree that this amount totals $10,000. Within 14 business days of the execution of this Agreement, the County will pay this amount by check made payable directly to "Islamic Center of Culpeper."

E. In consideration of the above, and within five (5) business days of the County's actions as described in Paragraphs II. A-D supra, the Parties will jointly move the Court for an order that (1) dismisses this Civil Action with prejudice; (2) incorporates the terms of this Agreement into the Court's dismissal order; (3) reserves the Parties' rights to reopen the judgment in the event of breach of this Agreement; and states that (4) the Court will retain jurisdiction during the duration of this Agreement to enforce this Agreement.

F. Also in consideration of the above, ICC releases, acquits and forever discharges the County from all Released Claims, including any and all claims that were or could have been raised in the Civil Action.

III. Other Provisions

A. This Agreement is a compromise and settlement of alleged claims, and the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall not be construed as an admission of liability. The County expressly denies any and all liability and merely intends to avoid further litigation.

B. This Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of the Parties hereto and their respective heirs, personal representatives, successors, and assigns, and shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of the United States and Virginia, including, without limitation, in relation to all matters of formation, interpretation, construction, validity, performance and enforcement. The waiver by any party hereto of any breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not constitute or operate as a waiver of any other breach of such provision or of any provisions hereof, nor shall any failure to enforce any provision hereof operate as a waiver at such time or any time in the future of such provision or any provision hereof. The Parties agree to take all actions necessary to carry out their obligations under this Agreement.

C. This Agreement constitutes the sole and entire Agreement between ICC and the County with respect to the matters covered hereby and supersedes any prior or contemporaneous agreement, understanding, or undertaking, written or oral, by or between the Parties regarding such matters. No term or provision of this Agreement may be varied, changed, modified, waived, discharged, or terminated orally, except by written agreement of the Parties.

D. ICC and the County represent that, prior to signing this Agreement, they read it, consulted with their counsel, and each understands its terms and conditions. ICC and the County accept this Agreement as their own free and voluntary act, without duress, and intend to be legally bound by it. This Agreement is made without reliance upon any statements or representations by ICC, the County, or their representatives that are not contained herein.

E. ICC accepts payment of the sum specified in this Agreement as the full and complete and final settlement of matters involving the Released Claims and the Civil Action.
